Dispatcher's can only provide information to first responders that is provided to them by the reporting parties, often is not complete or correct.

Inside 9-1-1 Focus Story

The FCC has now required us to use 10 digit dialing for all our phone calls. But do you know why?

The purpose of this change allowed for 988 a three digit number like 911 or 211, to be used as a single easy to remember number to call when someone is contemplating or in the process of committing suicide or in crisis and in need of trained help.

988 provides access to a large network of providers that can take your phone call, text or chat, and work to help you through your crisis.

Your crisis may be resolved in talking with them on the 988 line, it may be through a referral to local resources, or if needed the help can be to send public safety to help you as soon as possible.

This will be handled by 9-1-1 staff very similarly as it has been in the past, when we get a referral that required emergent response from our public safety partners. What will be new for 9-1-1 is that we will have a resource that we can refer someone to that is not in need of Police, Fire or EMS, but just needs to speak to someone that can help them in their crisis or in dealing with other mental health related issues that again don't need public safety to be involved.

The program was started July 1, 2022 in a soft launch mode, to allow providers the ability to implement the new system.

Marketing and advertising the new 988 line has kicked off January 1st, and everyone should see a great deal more information out in the public with regards to 988.

988 is not just for suicidal persons, it is for anyone in need of help or in crisis with mental health issues.

We have seen the number of mental health calls increasing, as a result we left this focus story up again for this month to bring more awareness to the new 988 program.
